Women Can't Hold Office.

Until the laws of Missouri are changed a woman cannot hold a state office. Miss Elizabeth Thompson, secretary of the Kansas City Socialist Club, wanted to make the race this fall for superintendent of public instruction but her application for a place on the general ticket as the candidate of the Socialist party was not filed by Cornelius Roach, Secretary of State, in Jefferson City. An examination of the law disclosed the requirement that candidates for state offices be men more than 25 years old. Miss Thompson received notice from Jefferson City that her application for a place on the Socialist ticket had been withheld merely because she was a woman. Another candidate will be named by the Socialists to fill the vacancy. Miss Thompson was nominated for superintendent of public instruction in the recent primary of the party.—Ralls County Record.

Got Away.

Jim Jackson was in the city with a fractious horse and thought it fun to see the nervous animal rear, back and turn around, but it was funny once too often for when he finally wheeled and started north on Vine Street any one could see it was good by Jim. Just after crossing Court Street Jim attempted to jump and fell flat on the hard gravel roadway and then the horse took across lots where he tore up the sod on D. K. Yowell's pretty lawn and fetched up against the corner of the Shaw house and kicked loose from the buggy.

Jim was considerably bruised and next time, maybe, will have more patience with a horse.

Misses Lillian West and Anna Hawkins, of Shelbyna were visitors in this city Thursday.
